HANNIBAL, Mo , March 2 .- Enoch A. McLeod, postmaster at Palmyra and ex-sheriff of this county, committed suicide this morning by hanging himself in the court house at Palmyra. The postoffice inspector had just flaished an examination and announced a shortage of about $750. This McLeod admitted and during the day tried to replace it, but failed and went home last night much depressed, arose early this morning, bought a rope at a grocery store and at 1:30 hrs lifeless body was found.

The deceased was one of the most popular men in Marion county and the people of Palmyra are highly indignant at the action of the postffice inspector in advertising McLeod's shortage, and to-night they held a meeting and drafted resoluions and will forward them to the department, asking that the inspector be reprimanded.
